GMVA is proud to announce some more fantastic news about volleyballers in Victoria who are really going places:

- Kelly Lean is leaving for Parkland College in Illinois this week
- Katherine Ferris is leaving for Hofstra Pride University in New York in August
- Hannah Wright recently left for her second season Louisiana Tech University
- Thomas Hodges moved to Canberra in June to become part of the National Mens team where he joins fellow GMVA athletes Jordan Richards and Trent O'Dea
- Trent Mathews will leave in August for his first season at Grand Canyon University where he joins Gerrard Lipscombe who is heading into his 3rd season there
- Charles Hyde is leaving in August for Barton College in the USA for his 1st season of college volleyball
- Jordan Richards has recently signed with TV Schonenwerd in the Swiss 1st league after winning the Dutch National Championship & Cup last season with Zwolle
- Luke Brisbane will leave in August to head to Red Deer College in Canada where he will replace his brother Samuel who has moved onto Mount Royal in the CIS division
- Curtis Stockton recently headed back to Canada to spend summer training there in preparation for his 3rd season with the College of the Rockies. Sam Alves also chose to stay in Canada this season and enjoy the summer

These placements are a real testament to what can be achieved when any athlete, male or female invests time in their volleyball and dedicates to training in a professional manner.

GMVA now offers training squads from 11 years old through to 21, catering for the beginners through to the overseas players when they return for their colleges or professional leagues.
